THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS

We who are strong ought to bear with the failings of the weak and not to please ourselves. <sup>2</sup>Each of us should please our neighbors for their good, to build them up. <sup>3</sup>For even Christ did not please himself but, as it is written: "The insults of those who insult you have fallen on me." <sup>4</sup>For everything that was written in the past was written to teach us, so that through the endurance taught in the Scriptures and the encouragement they provide we might have hope.

<sup>5</sup>May the God who gives endurance and encouragement give you the same attitude of mind toward each other that Christ Jesus had, <sup>6</sup>so that with one mind and one voice you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

<sup>7</sup>Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God. (15:1-7)

“WRITTEN FOR OUR LEARNING”: AUTHORITY

In today’s Epistle (Romans 15:1-7) we read: “Whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope.” (message continued on uocc.ca)

"Orthodox Christianity is the faith for all mankind." " As a steward, I must wisely manage the gifts God has given me and use them for building up of the Church." "I am called to work with Christ in reaching others." " I want my parish to serve as the means by which others are brought to Christ and His Church." "I must share God's love with others by sharing my faith with them." "Evangelization is the heart of the Church's life and experience." " I must help to make the Church more visible and to invite others to services and activities." " Church growth begins with me."

A MESSAGE FOR OUR TIMES: There are many prophets of despair these days. War and economic recession have dampened optimism as thinkers seek to project the future of our planet. A noted broadcaster said. "I find a growing number of people who question whether anything matter, whether anything work, whether anyone listen, whether anyone care." The British writer Muggeridge suggested that the end of Western civilization might be at hand. Dr. Pauling, Nobel Prize winner, still claims optimism with the observation that "the human race might possibly survive." But remedies for the problem of humankind are rarely provided. Many ignore the biblical response to the results of man’s sin and folly. Bad conditions of life are not new, although the dimensions of these are great in our times. Here is God’s prescription for a resolution of man’s dilemma. 2 Chronicles 7:14.
