OPPORTUNITIES FOR INVOLVEMENT: Members and adherents of the Parish have many opportunities to become involved in the life of the Parish. Such volunteer participation is greatly encouraged and much appreciated. Indeed, our Parish functions through the efforts of our volunteers; their contributions form the basis of our Church organization and community life.

BEQUESTS TO THE PARISH: Thankfully, from time to time, the Parish has been the beneficiary of the generosity of deceased individuals who have remembered us in their wills. These capital bequests assist the parish greatly, particularly with renovations or development projects which require significant capital outlays. Serving at the Altar...

Every church has them. Boys serving in the sanctuary. We call them Altar Boys, for they perform their duties at the altars of our churches, and their presence lends solemnity to the Divine Liturgy on the Lord's Day.

The boys perform a variety of tasks in the church. They light the candles for worship, they give the censer at various times during services, they carry candles and take part in procession, and at times they sing responses and chant the Epistle and the Creed.

It is often from the ranks of altar ministrants that vocations to the Priesthood come. One might call the ministration of Altar Boys a school for training in the Christian Life. There they learn to serve the Church, and there they come to know their Faith.

Parishes usually take for granted these faithful boys who serve from Sunday to Sunday, year in and year out. A word of appreciation and encouragement might well be in order as we dedicate this issue of our bulletin to them.

The serious Altar Boy is not unlike those faithful followers of Christ who stood beside the cross of Golgotha, doing what they could as the sacrifice for mankind's salvation was being offered. While others strayed away, they stayed to do what they could as the Lord died on the cross.

HOLY COMMUNION

Ever since the night of the mystical supper, when our Lord commanded His Apostles to "take and eat, this is my body and drink of this, for this is My Blood", Orthodox Christians have been called upon to receive the Sacrament of Holy Communion as frequently as possible. At every Divine Liturgy, the invitation is extended to all of us. Every Sunday we are urged to partake of the Body and Blood of our Saviour. Christ's own words worn of the consequences that await those who declined to do so: (John 6:53)
