ETIQUETTE EVERY PERSON SHOULD KNOW: As the Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to spread, few organizations remain unscathed – and virtual meetings have become an essential part of how modern organizations maintain productivity and continuity. They're an easy, cost-effective way to align multiple locations. While virtual meetings have likely been a part of your daily work routine for some time now, it's still easy to fall victim to some major meeting faux pas. Virtual meeting etiquette is a whole new ball game compared to in-person meetings. To help you keep your meetings productive and professional, follow these simple virtual meeting etiquette rules and tips. Leave the keyboard alone. Dress appropriately. Be aware of your surroundings. Mute your microphone when you're not talking. No food allowed. Stay seated and stay present. Minimize Distractions

A PRAYER OF PROTECTION FROM CORONAVIRUS

O Lord our God, Who are rich in mercy and with careful wisdom direct our lives, hear our prayers and receive our repentance for our sins, bring an end to this new infectious disease, just as You averted the punishment of Your people in the past time. You Who are the Physician of our souls and bodies, grant restored health to those who have been seized by this illness raising them from their bed of suffering so that they may glorify You, O Merciful Saviour, and preserve in health those who have not been infected. By Your grace, O Lord, bless, strengthen, and preserve, all those who out of love and sacrifice care for the sick, either in their homes or in the hospitals. Deliver people in this city, in our country, and around the world from all illnesses and suffering, and teach us to value life and health as gifts from You. Give us Your peace, O God, and fill our hearts with unflinching faith in Your protection, hope in Your help, and love for You and our neighbor. For it is Yours to be merciful and to save us, O our God, and to You we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

МОЛИТВА ЗАХИСТУ ВІД КОРОНАВІРУСА

«Господи, Боже наш, багатий милосердям і милістю, що Своїм мудрим Провидінням керуєш нашим життям, вислухай нашу молитву, прийми покаєння за гріхи наші, припини пошесть згубну, яка спіткала нас, як Ти і раніше припиняв згубні пошесті серед людей. Милосердний Спасителю, захисти здоров'я тих, хто на Тебе уповає. Лікарю душ і тіл наших, дай одужання тим, що хворіють, і підведи їх з ложа недуги та страждань. Благослови, Господи, укріпи і захисти Своєю благодаттю усіх тих, хто з благодійністю і жертівністю піклується про хворих вдома чи в лікарнях. Визволи людей в нашому місті (селі, монастирі), в нашій країні і по всьому світу від пошесті згубної, від хвороб і страждань та навчи нас цінувати життя і здоров'я як Твої дари. Дай нам, Боже, Твій мир і наповни наші серця непохитною вірою в Твій захист, надією на Твою підтримку і любов'ю до Тебе і наших ближніх. Твоє бо є, щоб милувати і спасати нас, Боже наш, і Тобі славу возсилаємо, Отцю, і Сину, і Святому Духу, нині і повсякчас і навіки віків. Амін».

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Matthew 10:32-33, 37-38, 19:27-30 (Gospel)

Therefore, whoever confesses Me before men, him I will also confess before My Father who is in heaven. But whoever denies Me before men, him I will also deny before My Father who is in heaven. He who loves father or mother more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who loves son or daughter more than Me is not worthy of Me. And he who does not take his cross and follow after Me is not worthy of Me. Then Peter answered and said to Him, “See, we have left all and followed You. Therefore, what shall we have?” So, Jesus said to them, “Assuredly I say to you, that in the regeneration, when the Son of Man sits on the throne of His glory, you who have followed Me will also sit on twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for My name’s sake, shall receive a hundredfold, and inherit eternal life. But many who are first will be last, and the last first.

Hebrews 11:33-12:2 (Epistle)

Who through faith subdued kingdoms, worked righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in battle, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again. Others were tortured, not accepting deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection. Still others had trial of mockings and scourgings, yes, and of chains and imprisonment. They were stoned, they were sawn in two, were tempted, were slain with the sword. They wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins, being destitute, afflicted, tormented – of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, in dens and caves of the earth. And all these, having obtained a good testimony through faith, did not receive the promise, God having provided something better for us, that they should not be made perfect apart from us. Therefore, we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

SPIRITUAL MESSAGE

“YOU ARE THE SALT OF THE EARTH”

Throughout the course of history, salt has been viewed as a valuable substance. We can find numerous references to salt in the Old Testament. The Righteous Job asks the question: “Can nothing which is unsavoury be eaten without salt?” When the Prophet Elisha sweetened the waters of Jericho, he cast salt into them to illustrate its purifying power.

At the time of Christ, salt had many uses and served a multitude of purposes. In addition to its importance in seasoning and preserving food, salt was frequently used in the ritual of the Jewish people. So, when our Lord said these words to His followers: “YOU ARE THE SALT OF THE EARTH,” (Matt. 5:13) they fully understood that He was drawing attention to the significant role that they were expected to play in “preserving” God’s covenant with mankind. They knew that Christ looked upon them as “precious commodities.”

Orthodox Christians today must also consider themselves to be the “salt of the earth,” for much is expected of us as well. We must remind ourselves, however, that we must not “lose our flavour.” Just as tasteless salt becomes worthless, Orthodox Christians who do not live up to their calling are of little value to the Lord.

Along the shores of the Dead Sea, the primary source of salt in Biblical times, it is often difficult to distinguish this vital component from the white grains of sand that are plentiful as well. In like manner, it is not enough to merely APPEAR to be committed to Christ. Our devotion and loyalty to Him must be genuine. We must be the “real thing!” If not, then we, too, risk being “trampled underfoot by men” (Matt. 5:13) and rejected by our Divine Saviour.

St. Paul encourages us to continue to do so because, as we do so, we glorify God and others see the evidence of Christ. During this time of the pandemic, kindly make your donations via our web site: www.uocvancouver.com

BEQUESTS TO THE PARISH: Thankfully, from time to time, the Parish has been the beneficiary of the generosity of deceased individuals who have remembered us in their wills. These capital bequests assist the parish greatly, particularly with renovations or development projects which require significant capital outlays. We urge you to consider bequests to charitable beneficiaries such as your church.

CHURCH GROWTH BEGINS WITH ME: Consider these thoughtful quotations: "Church growth involves spiritual as well as numerical growth. "Orthodox Christianity is the faith for all mankind." "As a steward, I must wisely manage the gifts God has given me and use them for building up of the Church." "I am called to work with Christ in reaching others." "I want my parish to serve as the means by which others are brought to Christ and His Church." "I must share God's love with others by sharing my faith with them." "Evangelization is the heart of the Church's life and experience." "I must help to make the Church more visible and invite others to services and activities." "Church growth begins with me."

SPIRITUAL GROWTH: The fruit of Worship is the gift of the Spirit which takes place by following Christ; through prayer; virtues of faith, hope and love; friendship with others; listening and forgiving.

SUCCESS WHEN WE WORK TOGETHER: Each of us has been gifted by God and being part of our congregation gives all of us the opportunity to live our faith; be part of helping the Church operate; share responsibilities and lighten the labor for others; demonstrate and teach our children and grandchildren the value of serving and forge deeper and more meaningful relationships with our Brothers and Sisters in Christ. Please take time to call someone when you think of them. Remember our congregation is here for all of us. Belonging and feeling included takes time. A personal commitment, financial support and taking responsibility to participate fully. “Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is progress. Working together is success.”

OPPORTUNITIES FOR INVOLVEMENT: Members and adherents of the Parish have many opportunities to become involved in the life of the Parish. Such volunteer participation is greatly encouraged and much appreciated. Indeed, our Parish functions through the efforts of our volunteers; their contributions form the basis of our Church organization and community life.

BE THE CHURCH: The reason we come to church every Sunday is to listen to Christ, to praise Him, to receive Him within us that we may go out into the world and be the Church for the rest of the week.
