ETIQUETTE EVERY PERSON SHOULD KNOW: As the Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to spread, few organizations remain unscathed – and virtual meetings have become an essential part of how modern organizations maintain productivity and continuity. They're an easy, cost-effective way to align multiple locations. While virtual meetings have likely been a part of your daily work routine for some time now, it's still easy to fall victim to some major meeting faux pas. Virtual meeting etiquette is a whole new ball game compared to in-person meetings. To help you keep your meetings productive and professional, follow these simple virtual meeting etiquette rules and tips. Leave the keyboard alone. Dress appropriately. Be aware of your surroundings. Mute your microphone when you're not talking. No food allowed. Stay seated and stay present. Minimize Distractions

A PRAYER OF PROTECTION FROM CORONAVIRUS

O Lord our God, Who are rich in mercy and with careful wisdom direct our lives, hear our prayers and receive our repentance for our sins, bring an end to this new infectious disease, just as You averted the punishment of Your people in the past time. You Who are the Physician of our souls and bodies, grant restored health to those who have been seized by this illness raising them from their bed of suffering so that they may glorify You, O Merciful Saviour, and preserve in health those who not been infected. By Your grace, O Lord, bless, strengthen, and preserve, all those who out of love and sacrifice care for the sick, either in their homes or in the hospitals. Deliver people in this city, in our country, and around the world from all illnesses and suffering, and teach us to value life and health as gifts from You. Give us Your peace, O God, and fill our hearts with unflinching faith in Your protection, hope in Your help, and love for You and our neighbor. For it is Yours to be merciful and to save us, O our God, and to You we ascribe glory: to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit, now and ever and unto the ages of ages. Amen.

Scripture Readings

Ephesians 2:14-22; Luke 8:40-56

For he himself is our peace, who has made the two groups one and has destroyed the barrier, the dividing wall of hostility, by setting aside in his flesh the law with its commands and regulations. His purpose was to create in himself one new humanity out of the two, thus making peace, and in one body to reconcile both of them to God through the cross, by which he put to death their hostility. He came and preached peace to you who were far away and peace to those who were near. For through him we both have access to the Father by one Spirit. Consequently, you are no longer foreigners and strangers, but fellow citizens with God's people and also members of his household, built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Christ Jesus himself as the chief cornerstone. In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. And in him you too are being built together to become a dwelling in which God lives by his Spirit.

In today's Epistle (Eph. 2:14-22) we hear Paul tell his readers, the Gentile (non-Jewish) Christians of Ephesus, the joyous news that God had included them in His eternal family, which He loves and for which He has made the greatest of sacrifices...

Jesus Heals in Response to Faith

On the other side of the lake the crowds welcomed Jesus, because they had been waiting for him. <sup>41</sup>Then a man named Jairus, a leader of the local synagogue, came and fell at Jesus' feet, pleading with him to come home with him. <sup>42</sup>His only daughter,<sup>[a]</sup> who was about twelve years old, was dying. As Jesus went with him, he was surrounded by the crowds. <sup>43</sup>A woman in the crowd had suffered for twelve years with constant bleeding,<sup>[b]</sup> and she could find no cure. <sup>44</sup>Coming up behind Jesus, she touched the fringe of his robe. Immediately, the bleeding stopped. <sup>45</sup>"Who touched me?" Jesus asked. Everyone denied it, and Peter said, "Master, this whole crowd is pressing up against you." <sup>46</sup>But Jesus said, "Someone deliberately touched me, for I felt healing power go out from me." <sup>47</sup>When the woman realized that she could not stay hidden, she began to tremble and fell to her knees in front of him. The whole crowd heard her explain why she had touched him and that she had been immediately healed. <sup>48</sup>"Daughter," he said to her, "your faith has made you well. Go in peace." <sup>49</sup>While he was still speaking to her, a messenger arrived from the home of Jairus, the leader of the synagogue. He told him, "Your daughter is dead. There's no use troubling the Teacher now." <sup>50</sup>But when Jesus heard what had happened, he said to Jairus, "Don't be afraid. Just have faith, and she will be healed." <sup>51</sup>When they arrived at the house, Jesus wouldn't let anyone go in with him except Peter, John, James, and the little girl's father and mother. <sup>52</sup>The house was filled with people weeping and wailing, but he said, "Stop the weeping! She isn't dead; she's only asleep." <sup>53</sup>But the crowd laughed at him because they all knew she had died. <sup>54</sup>Then Jesus took her by the hand and said in a loud voice, "My child, get up!" <sup>55</sup>And at that moment her life<sup>[c]</sup> returned, and she immediately stood up! Then Jesus told them to give her something to eat. <sup>56</sup>Her parents were overwhelmed, but Jesus insisted that they not tell anyone what had happened.
