THE CUP AND THE BREAD...

One of the highlights of the coming Great Fast for every believing Christian is the receiving of the Holy Eucharist. "Take and eat," Jesus commanded at the Mystical Supper before He died. "Drink you all of this," He said at the Table as He met for the last time with His friends.

Holy Communion is a communal act testifying the we comprise one family, the family of Christ. We come as His children to the common Cup and Table. We gather at the Supper today as the Lord's family, just as He gathered that family about Himself centuries ago.

Communion is also a personal act that brings us into an intimate union with Christ. The Lord once said the whosoever partakes of the Eucharist "abides in Me, and I in him."

Holy Communion is also a pledge of eternal life. It is a foretaste of the eternal feast to come. It is a sign of the Lord's death and resurrection; therefore, of our own death to sin and resurrection to life.

TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

We also pray for healing and peace; that one day, all people will lay down their arms and embrace one another as brothers and sisters in one human family.

PANAKHYDA will be served today following the Divine Liturgy in memory of Mykola Bortnik. "We ask God, once again, to place the departed with the saints and to restore the beauty of being created in the image and likeness of God by wiping away the sins of the departed. "May they rest in peace with God and enjoy a place in His kingdom. Memory eternal. Vichnaya pam'yat'!"
