SPIRITUAL MESSAGE

Book of Romans

Brothers and sisters, my heart's desire and prayer to God for the Israelites is that they may be saved. For I can testify about them that they are zealous for God, but their zeal is not based on knowledge. Since they did not know the righteousness of God and sought to establish their own, they did not submit to God's righteousness. Christ is the culmination of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes. Moses writes this about the righteousness that is by the law: "The person who does these things will live by them." But the righteousness that is by faith says: "Do not say in your heart, 'Who will ascend into heaven?'" (that is, to bring Christ down) "or 'Who will descend into the deep?'" (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? "The word is near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart," that is, the message concerning faith that we proclaim: If you declare with your mouth, "Jesus is Lord," and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For it is with your heart that you believe and are justified, and it is with your mouth that you profess your faith and are saved. (10:1-10)

A SIMPLE WAY OF SALVATION

St. Paul's words concerning salvation in today's Epistle (Romans 10:1-10) are most assuring: "If you confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved". There is such certainty in these words! The demands are very clear and the blessed result of meeting these demands is equally so. (continued on uocc.)
