Etiquette Every Person Should Know

As the Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to spread, few organizations remain unscathed – and virtual meetings have become an essential part of how modern organizations maintain productivity and continuity. They're an easy, cost-effective way to align multiple locations.

While virtual meetings have likely been a part of your daily work routine for some time now, it's still easy to fall victim to some major meeting faux pas.

Virtual meeting etiquette is a whole new ball game compared to in-person meetings, as many folks are learning this week!

To help you keep your meetings productive and professional, follow these simple virtual meeting etiquette rules and tips.

1. Leave the keyboard alone
2. Dress appropriately
3. Be aware of your surroundings
4. Mute your microphone when you're not talking
5. No food allowed
6. Stay seated and stay present
7. Minimize Distractions

SCRIPTURE READINGS

Matthew 9:27-35 (Gospel)

When Jesus departed from there, two blind men followed Him, crying out and saying, "Son of David, have mercy on us!" And when He had come into the house, the blind men came to Him. And Jesus said to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?" They said to Him, "Yes, Lord." Then He touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be to you." And their eyes were opened. And Jesus sternly warned them, saying, "See that no one knows it." But when they had departed, they spread the news about Him in all that country. As they went out, behold, they brought to Him a man, mute and demon-possessed. And when the demon was cast out, the mute spoke. And the multitudes marveled, saying, "It was never seen like this in Israel!" But the Pharisees said, "He casts out demons by the ruler of the demons." Then Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease among the people.

Romans 15:1-7 (Epistle)

We then who are strong ought to bear with the scruples of the weak, and not to please ourselves. Let each of us please his neighbor for his good, leading to edification. For even Christ did not please Himself; but as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached You fell on Me." For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope. Now may the God of patience and comfort grant you to be like-minded toward one another, according to Christ Jesus, that you may with one mind and one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore receive one another, just as Christ also received us, to the glory of God.

"WRITTEN FOR OUR LEARNING": AUTHORITY

In today's Epistle (Romans 15:1-7) we read: "Whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that we through the patience and comfort of the Scriptures might have hope." (message continued on uocc.ca)

«НАПИСАНЕ НАМ НА НАУКУ»: ПРО ВЛАДУ

У сьогоднішньому Апостолі (Рим. 15:1-7) ми читаємо: «Все, що давніше написано, написано нам на науку, щоб терпінням і потіхою з Писання ми мали надію». (продовження на uocc.ca)

A MESSAGE FOR OUR TIMES: There are many prophets of despair these days.

The pandemic, protests and economic recession have dampened optimism as thinkers seek to project the future of our planet. A noted broadcaster said. "I find a growing number of people who question whether anything matter, whether anything work, whether anyone listen, whether anyone care." The British writer, Malcolm Muggeridge, suggested that the end of Western civilization might be at hand. Dr. Pauling, Nobel Prize winner, still claims optimism with the observation that "the human race might possibly survive." But remedies for the problem of humankind are rarely provided. Many ignore the biblical response to the results of man's sin and folly. Bad conditions of life are not new, although the dimensions of these are great in our times. Here is God's prescription for a resolution of man's dilemma.

2 Chronicles 7:14.

If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land.
2 Chronicles 7:14
