PASTORAL MESSAGE

Forgiveness of sin....

Few topics are less popular these days than sin. The concept of sin, and of a person's responsibility for it, has been vanishing in our society.

But during the Great Fast, as Christians prepare for the Day of Resurrection, they think of sin and of absolution as they receive the sacrament mystery of Penance, Confession.

How did Our Lord regard sin? Jesus dealt gently with sinners, but severely with sin. To those who were sorry, repentant, He offered full pardon, forgiveness, with an admonition to forsake sin. To the paralyzed man brought to Him, Jesus said. "My son your sins are forgiven you. "After healing the blind man, Jesus said. "Sin no more, lest something worse comes to you."

Christ instructed His apostles to deal with sins. "Whoever sins you forgive, they are forgiven; and whoever since you retain, they are retained, "He said. The Early Church did the same, and the present Church likewise provides for the forgiveness of sins in Penance.

This sacrament has been called the "second baptism," for it washes away transgressions committed after one's rebirth in Christ. It restores one to fellowship with the Savior, and heals the wounds of the spirit.

GROWING THE PARISH MEMBERSHIP is always a challenge. We all need to recognize the need for active mission outreach to our lapsed members, prospective members, and the vast number of new Ukrainian Canadians who are in some way affiliated with the Church but many of whom have not taken the step of becoming actual members of a parish community. It is our responsibility, as Orthodox Christians to bring these people into the folds of the Orthodox Church. With that said we must not forget the faithful members who are the pillars and foundations of our parish communities; they also need to be ministered to. A successful outreach ministry is not a result of one person's effort, but a joint effort of all - the pastor and faithful members. The latent potential for growth rests on us all.

Church Fathers Speak: Your prayer must have four constituent parts, says Basil the Great: adoration, thanksgiving, confession of sin and petition for salvation.

THANK YOU FOR ATTENDING THE SERVICE. MAY YOU ALL HAVE A WONDERFUL SUNDAY
